Rainbow Beach Restaurant takes out prestigious award

Waterview Bistro located in Rainbow Beach has taken out the gong for the best informal dining restaurant on the Sunshine Coast. At the Restaurant and Caterers gala award night held at Twin Waters on Monday night, Waterview was announced as the winner in the best informal dining category.

With strong competition from some of the Sunshine Coasts finest restaurants Waterview took the title ahead of entrants from Caloundra, Maroochydore and Noosa. Not only a coup for owners Matt and Judy Collins, it is a testament to how far the sleepy little town of Rainbow Beach has come in the past few years.

Nestled in the luxurious Rainbow Ocean Palms Resort, Waterview has been opened for 3 1/2 years and is providing another reason for visitors to flock to this beautiful and pristine beachside hamlet.

Award winning Noosa chef, Justin Walker has been in the kitchen for the past year and a half and is continuing to cement Waterview's reputation as a destination restaurant. With every table affording stunning views to Fraser Island and beyond this small Rainbow Beach restaurant is one of the truly great dining experiences to be found on the coast.
